

The 1st Conference on Stray Animals in the Caucasus

15-16 July, 2010
Yerevan, Armenia

Armenian Animal Welfare Organizations are United

Dear ladies and gentlemen,

We are proud to announce that Armenia will host the 1st Conference on Stray Animals in the Caucasus in Yerevan this year.

Animal welfare organizations, environmental campaigners, political stakeholders and interested individuals from Armenia, the Caucasus and other former Soviet Union countries will come together during the two-day conference on the 15th and 16th July 2010 at the American University of Armenia.

The Conference on Stray Animals in the Caucasus (CSAC) is the first conference of its kind in the entire region and will provide a unique platform to network, exchange knowledge and gain support from international counterparts. Speakers from internationally known organizations will be presenting topics such as breeding control methods, health relevance and the importance of publicity, education programs, fundraising and legislative changes.

The conference is organized by Pro Paws Charity registered in UK, the Acopian Centre for the Environment (ACE), the Foundation for the Preservation of Wildlife and Cultural Assets (FPWC) and the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE), and supported by the American University of Armenia (AUA), the German Technical Cooperation (GTZ) and the Municipality of Yerevan.

We invite you to join us in the discussion of this important issue in Armenia. Participation at the conference is free of charge, but please register until July 5th by sending an email to info@pro-paws.org or by calling +374 10 512520. For more information, please also visit www.pro-paws.org.

We are looking forward to seeing you at the conference,

The CSAC Organizing Committee
